

FUEL BOWL BRACKET

Material:- Low carbon steel.

This bracket was originally zinc electroplated followed by passivation, after which a rubber bowl shaped fixture was moulded into place. The bracket assembly was then fitted to an upmarket vehicle during which the bracket distorted creating difficulties for the assembly of this part. The application of a Nitrotec treatment followed by degreasing to enable moulding of the rubber bowl, thus, providing a total solution to the problem.

