

ACTUATION SYSTEMS

Material:- Aluminium Killed Low Carbon Steel.

The original simple form has been Nitrotec treated for strength improvement. The Levers of greater complexity in shape and section, have been formed from a relatively soft, aluminium killed, low carbon steel which is used for easier formability. The components have then been strengthened by the Nitrotec process, thus deleting the need for a corrosion resistant finish such as zinc electroplate with a yellow passivate.

